Pat Loehrer Returns As 2012 Old Master

Dr. Patrick Loehrer '75 returned to Purdue as an "Old Master" in the annual program that invites leaders from various professions to share with students and faculty their professional experiences and personal journeys.

Brother Loehrer graduated from Purdue in 1975 with a Mechanical Engineering degree and then attended Rush Medical College in Chicago. Today Pat is Director, IU Simon Cancer Center at Indiana University School of Medicine and Associate Dean, Cancer Research at Indiana University of Medicine.

Pat remarked, "I remember meeting one of the most impressive architects of our time, Gerald Hines '46, who visited 202 Littleton as an Old Master when I was at Purdue. I never thought that one day I could be considered in the same breath--- "Old", maybe, but not an "Old Master".

Pat was assigned a group of students to host his visit. One of his hosts was Sig Kevin Brown '14. Other Delta Delta brothers involved in the program this year were Justin Isenthal '14, Dennis Ding '13, Greg Burns '14 and Dan Marklin '13.

Commenting on his visit Pat noted, "To spend some quality time with Kevin Brown, the other hosts and hostesses and these collection of See Old Master ..... Page 6

Reunion Classes Celebrate at Homecoming

Not snow, or rain, or sleet, or a mediocre football season could deter the Delta Delta brothers from returning to Purdue for Homecoming on October 13. It is such a visible testimony of our bonds of brotherhood to see so many brothers return each year. A number of classes took this occasion to hold reunions from 50 years to 10.

Class of '62 Reunion

Seventeen brothers from the Class of '62 met at "dear old Sigma Chi" for their 50th reunion. The group's weekend was arranged by Jim Parrish and Bill Frey. Friday evening began with dinner at the Our Time Restaurant with good conversation, food and fellowship amongst the brothers and spouses. The following morning several from this group attended the House Corporation meeting and Homecoming Brunch held at the Chapter House.

THE SIGMA CHI CREED

I believe in fairness, decency, and good manners. I will endeavor to retain the spirit of youth. I will try to make my college, the Sigma Chi Fraternity, and my own chapter more honored by all men and women and more beloved and honestly respected by our own brothers. I say these words in all sincerity that Sigma Chi has given me favor and distinction: that I will endeavor to so build myself and so conduct myself that I will ever be a credit to our Fraternity.

Consul's Corner ..... Greg Burns '14

It is my honor to address you as the incoming Consul of the 2013 term. The Delta Delta Chapter of Sigma Chi has had a phenomenal fall semester. With a record number of brothers living in the house this semester, house moral is at an all time high. We have met the challenge of successfully providing a safe, successful, and enjoyable environment for the brothers to live.

The Delta Delta '16 pledge class is comprised of 27 young gentlemen who we are confident meet the standards of our fraternity. They have actively participated in several philanthropies on campus, and are doing a great job of learning their pledge materials.

With an additional emphasis on philanthropy we kicked off the year with record amount of money raised at our "Greek Olympics" event. We plan in the spring to hold a 'Mini Mudder' race. This event runs fraternity and sorority teams through an obstacle course to raise money for the Wounded Warrior Foundation. Delta Delta is teaming up with Alpha Phi Alpha and Kappa Alpha Psi for this philanthropy. We have also begun planning a trip for early summer to help with either the Hurricane Sandy recovery effort on the East coast or New Orleans to help with the continuing relief there.

This year has also been a busy one for returning alumni. Some of the distinguished brothers who have been back to 202 include Gerald Hines '46, William Emde '46, Keith Krach '79, William Frey '62, Bernie Sergesketter '58, Steve Schmidt '76, Larry McMillan '68, and Dr. Patrick Loehrer '75. I had the pleasure of meeting Brothers Hines and Emde on their visit to Delta Delta when they returned to Purdue's Herrick Laboratories to see some of their work on sustainable building technology. Brother Krach was in attendance at the annual Dad's day festivities with his son Carter '14. I also was able to give Brothers Sergesketter and Frey, and their lovely wives a tour of the chapter house. Being able to attend brother McMillan's Significant Sig award presentation was one of the most inspiring events I have had the honor of attending as a Sigma Chi. He and the other Significant Sigs are great role models for all of the undergraduates. Brother Loehrer was selected as an Old Masters to speak with undergraduates about the keys to his success. This is just the beginning of the list of alumni who have visited 202 Littleton this semester, as many more attended reunions for the classes of '62, '77, '87, and '02.

Delta Delta is also manning two go-karts for the 55th annual Grand Prix. After a promising start to last years race, both karts were involved in wrecks during the race, but were still able to finish 19th and 25th after some terrific, on the go, work from our Pit Crew. This speedy work won us the 'Best Pit Crew Award.' Our Sigma Chi blue and old gold flag paint scheme helped us also earn the 'Most Attractive Kart and Crew Award.' You can learn more about becoming a sponsor for the team by emailing me at burnsg2@gmail.com.

At the reunion dinner each returning brother was presented with a print of John T. McCutcheon's illustration of the "Old Grad" first published in the Chicago Tribune in 1935. It was a fitting token of the chapter's esteem for these brothers as throughout their return to 202 Littleton, they could be seen conversing with younger brothers and perhaps even imparting some sage words of wisdom.

Our thanks to those returning ... Dave and Carole Ebner, Don Bauer,

Class of '77 Reunion

Although small in numbers the eleven brothers from the Class of 77 that gathered for their 35th reunion had a fun weekend reliving the "good ol' days." On Friday several of this group played golf, met for drinks at the Sig house, had dinner at Bruno's and then headed back to Delta Delta to party with the undergrads. Saturday they met up for pre-game activities at the chapter house and then enjoyed the spirit and camaraderie at the Sig Alumni tailgate. Following the game it was dinner and more bar hopping that allowed additional time to share the bonds of friendship that have existed for so long. Jeff Early '77 commented, "It was interesting to note that whenever Brother Boje or Cobb would talk about Eta Beta or something similar, Tom Schneider would look at his lovely wife and simply say "I wasn't there". Curious."

Class of '87 Reunion

The Class of '87 returned in strength to celebrate their 25th reunion. Organized by pledge class president Frank Jones this group returned to Delta Delta to live out a time in their lives when "Red Solo cups" were not required to have a great party. Activities started with an informal cookout Friday evening at the chapter house with good food and beer and time spent laughing and hanging out with each other. Pat Burke noted, "That over the weekend we had 13 brothers converge on 202 Littleton. We sorely missed every brother who couldn't make it this year. Every one." Pat further noted, "Later we enjoyed a fantastic tailgate organized by Jeff McKean and Bob Burlas. Although we suffered through a tough loss and a ton of rain, it was fun to continue the great discussions –crammed under umbrellas and the tents and visiting with other alumni."

Class of 2002 Reunion

The Class of 2002 celebrated their 10 year reunion by coming back on September 15 for the Michigan football weekend. These brothers met Friday afternoon at Harry's and then headed for the chapter house where they had dinner in the Dining Room. On Saturday they joined Sigs from the classes of '03, '04 and '05 at a pre-game tailgate, watched the Boiler-makers in action, and then reconvened at 202 Littleton to continue their festivities. Holding to their claim of being a unique class they had "2'02 Littleton" shirts made up to memorialize their classes return.

Lifetime Bond of Friendship

We want to thank all the reunion groups for returning to Delta Delta. It is always fun seeing everyone back. It is a tremendous example to all the brothers of the strength of our brotherhood. Pat Burke '87 summed it up well. He noted "Delta Delta is as strong as ever...both the physical structure and most importantly the quality and caliber of men carrying on the ideals and traditions we spent all weekend reminiscing about."

Alumni, House Corp Present Undergraduate Scholarships

Three Delta Delta undergraduates were recently selected as the recipients of the John Eddy, John Puterbaugh and Class of 2008 Leadership scholarships. Alumni brothers representing each of these awards participated in the selection process.

John Eddy Scholarship

Greg Burns '14 received the $1000 John Eddy Scholarship sponsored by the Delta Delta House Corp. Greg is a junior majoring in Mechanical Engineering with a minor in Management/Economics and carries a 3.66 GPA. He is currently the chapter's Consul and has also served as Pro Consul, Scholarship chairman, and the driver for one of the Sigma Chi Grand Prix karts. Brother Burns is also the recipient of the EPICS Outstanding (Engineering) Design Award.

Class of 2008 Scholarship

The Class of 2008 Leadership Scholarship in the amount of $2000 was presented to senior Dan Marklin a Civil Engineering major with a minor in Economics and a GPA of 3.3. Dan has been active in Old Masters as a Director, Host and Publicity representative. He also took on the challenge of leading the reorganization of IFC's Risk Management teams. Funding for this scholarship comes from family and brothers from the Class of 2008 in memory of pledge brothers Tom Jeschke and Joe Zerbo.

John Puterbaugh Service Award

The John Puterbaugh Service Award of $5000 was presented by Jim MacDonald '80 on behalf of the Class of 1980 to senior Nick Kamp. Brother Kamp is in Purdue's School of Pharmacy with a 3.7 GPA. Following graduation he will attend medical school. Nick's participates in College Mentors for Kids, Habitat for Humanity, escorts/drives patients to Lafayette's IU Medical Center, and works with Special Olympics. Nick has also served as Scholarship Chairman and Annotator.

The Puterbaugh Service Award is made possible by the generosity of the Puterbaugh family and Delta Delta brothers who wish to encourage and foster the spirit of creative and selfless giving that Brother Puterbaugh exemplified.

Delta Delta Dads Enjoy Football, Poker and Hanging Out

Dad's Day was held the weekend of October 2 – 4 with many of the undergraduate's fathers returning for this special event where Dad's and sons share some great time together.

Upon their Dad's arrival Friday afternoon the brothers checked in their Dads and took them out for dinner (with their Dad's picking up the tab). Following dinner fathers and sons returned to the chapter house for an evening of poker and catching up. For the Dad's willing to get up early and to look a little silly, their sons invited them to join in Purdue's tradition of Breakfast Club on Saturday morning. Wearing distinctive costumes, Dads and sons enjoyed a few early morning beers together.

Back at the Sig house pizzas arrived for lunch as most of the Dads and Sigs prepared to head over to tailgate parties at Ross Ade stadium prior to the start of the Penn State – Purdue game. A large group of Sigs and Dads were hosted by Jeff McKean and Gary Thoe, whose sons are both sophomores at Delta Delta. Although the football game didn't turn out in Purdue's favor, it was a great day to talk about topics other than the Purdue football season.

Saturday evening the Sigs and their Dads were joined by the Kappas and their Dads for a party at Delta Delta. After two long days of hanging out with their sons, many of the Dads headed for bed early.

One Dad noted, "It was a lot of fun and the time spent with my son was wonderful. But I'm not sure I could party like this every weekend". That's O.K. because all the Dads have twelve months to get ready for Dad's Day 2013. We look forward to seeing everyone then!

Lifelong Purdue Fan Enjoys Role As “Purdue Pete”

A Tradition of “Purdue Petes”

Joining a growing lineage of Delta Delta Purdue Petes, Paul Gabor '14 is the latest Sigma Chi to don the Purdue Pete head and hammer and roam the sidelines as the iconic Boiler-maker mascot. As a freshman, Paul was encouraged by then seniors Danny Runyon and Steven Filie, who were Purdue Pete's at the time, to try out for the position as Purdue's #1 cheerleader.

Brothers Encourage Trying Out

“Those older guys only had great things to say about being a Purdue Pete and they thought I would be a good candidate, so they convinced me to try out,” Paul remarked. “I had some experience in that kind of role after leading the basketball student section in high school so it definitely interested me. I kind of just fell in love with it and fortunately I made the cut.”

How many Purdue Pete's?

Paul is one of four Purdue Petes. The four Pete's share football game day responsibilities by working the crowd for one quarter of every home game. Paul notes that it can get very hot in their uniforms and the Purdue Pete head is a lot to carry around for long periods of time.

Pumping Up The Boiler Fans

As one might expect, Paul says home football games are the most fun. “Pumping up the Boiler fans and being part of the game day excitement with alumni and students is an absolute blast. The best moment for me is interacting with kids. They love meeting me and I do whatever I can to just put a smile on their faces.” Paul still smiles for every picture even though he knows no one sees who is under the polyurethane molded Pete head which is made by the aeronautical engineering staff and students specifically for each “Pete.”

Purdue Pete a.k.a. Paul Gabor '14

In addition to Purdue sporting events, Purdue Pete attends other functions including banquets, birthday parties, and even weddings. “I did a wedding over the summer and it was a lot of fun. I was on the dance floor with three 80 year-old women just dancing and everyone having a great time. It's incredible the effect that Purdue Pete can have.”

Purdue Pete's Alter Ego

When not playing the role of Purdue Pete, Paul is a junior from Zionsville, Indiana, majoring in accounting in the Krannert School of Management. Go Boilers!

2012 Greek Olympics participants gather on the front lawn of the Sigma Chi house prior to the games beginning.

Delta Delta Raises Over $10,000 For Sigma Chi Charity

Sigs Host Greek Olympics

Each fall, Delta Delta sponsors and hosts one of the most successful philanthropies on campus, the Greek Olympics. This event brings together students from numerous fraternities and sororities to socialize and compete in some fun activities, and most importantly, raise money for a great cause -- Riley Children's Hospital.

23 Fraternities and Sororities Take Part In Competition

Sigma Chi philanthropy chairs Will Parish '15 and Spencer Swarts '14 coordinated this year's effort with the Purdue Dance Marathon committee. More than 400 students from 23 houses took part raising $10,300 dollars for Riley Children's Hospital, making this the most successful Greek Olympics to date.

Special Kids are the Winners

Greek Olympic “competitions” included a water pong tournament, a pie eating contest, tug of war, Greek/Purdue trivia, a knockout contest, and a relay race. Sigma Chi placed first in the water pong tournament and finished runner up in both the knockout and pie-eating competitions. Unfortunately our efforts weren't enough to defend the overall Greek Olympics' title which Sigma Chi has held for the past two years. On a day like this, though, there were no winners or losers. It was a day of brotherhood and camaraderie, and of course, making an impact on young people's lives.

Delta Delta Brothers Serve As Distinguished Visitors At BLTW

Each year the BLTW staff invites a small group of alumni who have made their mark in their professions to take part in BLTW as Distinguished Visiting alumni. These alumni brothers have an opportunity to spend time with different groups of undergraduates and exchange ideas and compare experiences.

BLTW Distinguished Visitors

At this year's Balfour Leadership Training Workshop two Delta Delta brothers were chosen to be Distinguished Visitors ..... John Buckingham '75 and Bart Burrell '81. John, a Significant Sig, is currently a professor of marketing at the Graziadio School of Business and Management at Pepperdine University in Los Angeles and also works with various startup companies. Bart is Associate Resident Director, First Vice President -Investments for Merrill Lynch in Lafayette. Bart is also President of the Delta Delta House Corporation.

What A Great Experience

"What a great experience as a distinguished visitor and especially at Delta Delta," commented John. "I enjoyed interacting with the Consul's Group and discussing current chapter problems that I had found some solutions for! By far the best interaction was with several undergraduate brothers who approached me at random and wanted advice on their education and career paths.....I am even mentoring a Sig from U of California-San Diego on his entrepreneurship program right now. I also was so impressed with the caliber of the Consul's faculty and their broad experience as leader examples to the undergraduate Consuls." John further noted, "Seeing the Initiation was spectacular and brought back such vivid memories when I played the amazing alumni was inspirational. I so appreciated the hospitality of our fellow brothers, the Students and Staff who individually and collectively remind me that making a difference in this life is dependent on making a difference in others, one person at a time."

Busy 3 Day Schedule

During the three day visit (November 4 -6), Brother Loehrer spoke to students in the Engineering and Pharmacy schools, gave a lecture at the Purdue Center for Cancer Research, met with students at different events and had dinner at the Lafayette Theatre with acting Purdue President Tim Sands.

Sig Host Gains From Experience

As Dr. Loehrer's host Kevin Brown reflected, "My experience with Old Masters was a great one. The work that Dr. Loehrer has done over the years, and continues to do Consul role in the initiation the last time Workshop was held at Purdue in 1974. WOW! What strong emotions and I am so proud to be a Delta Delta Sigma Chi!"

Bart spent time hosting visitors and having the opportunity to talk to others about the challenges and accomplishments of Delta Delta.

every day, is truly inspirational. Dr. Loehrer's story speaks volumes about the type of people who have come from Delta Delta over its nearly 140 year history. The Old Masters program brings together student leaders, and gives them the unique opportunity to connect with distinguished individuals, such as Dr. Loehrer."

Who's The Next Old Master

Delta Delta has had a number of alumni participate in the Old Masters program over the years. In each of the last four years Delta Delta has been represented by Pat, Mark Sand '73, Glenn Weckerlin '79 and Ron Carpinella '91. We can't wait to see who's next?

“202 Celebration” To Be Held September 13-15, 2013

100 years ago in 1913, George Ade, John T. McCutcheon and many Delta Delta brothers arrived at 202 Littleton to hold the formal dedication of the new chapter house. To commemorate this historic event, Delta Delta will be holding a 100th anniversary celebration at Delta Delta the weekend of September 13- 15, 2013.

A number of commemorative activities are planned including dinner on the “202 Littleton” front lawn, attending the Purdue – Notre Dame football game, and presentations highlighting the completion of the Renovation Fundraising Campaign.

The Delta Delta House Corporation is obtaining a block of tickets for the Notre Dame game, as well as a block of hotel rooms for returning brothers. Details will be posted on the website in January as to how to reserve a room and football game tickets for this event.

Plan now to be part of another special moment in Delta Delta’s long and storied history.

’68 Hank Suerth was recently named CEO for Orion Food Systems. Hank joined Orion in May after serving as senior vice president for Caribou Coffee Co. Prior to that Hank was a director of executive education programs at Purdue’s Krannert School, as a senior V.P. for Starbucks, and in other executive management positions for various firms.

’95 Gavin Philipps is now the Director of Sales Operations and Training, Cardiology for Boston Scientific. Congrats on his new position can be sent to 5750 Sunnysbrook Ln., Mound, MN 5536. Email: gavin.philipps@bsci.com

On November 10 in Austin, Texas, Corbin Bain '79 (L) and Dan Inlow '83 (second from right) shared the honor of seeing their sons Andrew Bain (Alpha Nu '16) and Kevin Inlow (Alpha Nu '16) initiated into Sigma Chi at the University of Texas. Corby noted that it was a real pleasure to see the sons of two Delta Delta brothers join Sigma Chi together.

Class of '68 Presents McMillan With Significant Sig Award

A number of the brothers in the Class of '68 returned to Delta Delta to present their pledge brother, Lawrence McMillan with his Significant Sig award. Larry McMillan '68 was named Delta Delta's 42nd Significant Sig for his accomplishments as a professional trader, author and president of McMillan Analysis Corp.

Along with Larry's pledge brothers a number of local alumni and undergraduates attended the ceremony held in the Great Hall on November 17. Led by Master of Ceremonies Tom Leslie with comments from Frank Hughes, Larry's prominent career in Wall Street options trading was recounted, along with a number of stories from his college years. Larry's wife, Janet, was also serenaded with the Sweetheart song by all the brothers in attendance.

It was learned that one of Larry's other significant talents is playing the piano and in their college years his classmates would gather around the piano in the Great Hall and Larry would lead them in a rousing version of "House of the Rising Sun." To commemorate those occasions, the brothers set up an electric piano in the Great Hall and entertained the crowd with a 2012 version of this classic song.

Following the ceremony refreshments were served before the Class of '68 continued their celebration at a local restaurant.
